MAKE FINAL PLANS FOR C. OF C. TO 'GO OVER TOP'

Intensive Drive of Member
Campaign In Last Stage;
Much Enthusiasm

Arrangements for a final and intensive drive in the campaign for new members in the local Chamber of Commerce was the principal purpose of last night's banquet and booster meeting of the four membership committees held at the White Inn, corner Broadway and Glendale avenue. The most important step taken toward the strenuous drive that is being planned was the announcement that "all boundaries would be cut" and that from now on any member of any committee will have the privilege of "signing" new members in any part of Glendale "or anywhere else."

E. F. Sanders, who is assistant secretary of the chamber, was in charge of the gathering, which was attended by a large proportion of the committee members.

Makes General Report

In opening the business of the evening he gave a general report and resume of the work already performed by the various committees, and laid particular stress on the work to be completed during the remaining two weeks of the 1000 member campaign, which ends on September 30. Mr. Sanders stated that "after the first thousand members are obtained the next thousand will want to join the Chamber of Commerce of their own volition."

Secretary James Rhoades then gave a brief talk, telling of the numerous measures and propositions of unlimited value that are being contemplated by the Chamber of Commerce to take place in the near future. Of these the principal one mentioned was the fact that "Glendale is soon to have a sewer, the first steps for the installation having already been made."

According to Mr. Rhoades the city is soon to have its greatest need—the sewer. Announcement was also made of the proposed new railway station, which will probably be erected within the next two years.

New Chairman Chosen

On account of her daughter's illness Mrs. Margaret L. Biggs, who was originally chosen as chairman of the Southeast Section committee, her resignation from the office was accepted, and Dr. Harry St. Clair was selected to take her place.

Answering a charge made by several working men that the Chamber of Commerce was "merely a business men's club and a merchants' association," Mr. Sanders stated that on the contrary the chamber "welcomes brick layers as well as bank presidents and that any good, honest citizen who believes in building better schools and other municipal property and also in the improving of the city's social and moral conditions should be a member of the Chamber of Commerce."

H. E. Bartlett, who is a member of the Northwest Section committee, was appointed to act as vice-chairman to Mrs. Ella Richardson for the remaining two weeks of the drive.

Tell of Experiences

Following this, speeches of experiences gained in canvassing for members, and reports of the accomplishments of the several groups were made by Dr. Jessie Russell, Edward B. Ellas, Mrs. Ella Richardson, Dr. Albert Vack, Mrs. Jack Thomas, Dr. St. Clair and others.

Before adjourning, Mr. Rhoades made a special announcement urging the members to do their utmost during the next week and also to be present at next Friday night's dinner, when full and accurate statement of the membership campaign will be made. All men present at the meeting without their wives were threatened to be liable to a fine of $5 at the next meeting of the committees if their "better halves" were not present.

BOY SCOUT COUNCIL MEETS

A meeting of the Boy Scout council was held last night in the office of Roy L. Kent, 130 South Brand boulevard, with about fifteen members in attendance. During the business meeting, which was presided over by Charles L. Chandler, the matter came up of arranging to have a first class boy scout organization here in Glendale, which would mean that there would have to be a paid man to look after all of the details of scouting and that a camping place for the boys be secured. It was decided to have a committee confer with the county council in Los Angeles next Tuesday with the idea that there will be a combined effort made all over the county to raise money for the scout movement.

P.T. A. Officials Attend Meeting of First District Board

Mrs. John Robert White, president of the Glendale Federation of Parent-Teacher associations, Mrs. P. S. McNutt, Mrs. Lydia Kulp, Mrs. H. V. Henry and Mrs. William A. Stofft attended the first district board meeting of elective officers of parent-teacher associations of this district, which was held Thursday in Los Angeles at the county board of education rooms. There were about thirty P.T. A. officers present.

The chief matter of importance taken up was the discussion of plans for the year's work, that having been the first meeting of the new school year. Bulletins were also issued, which if they meet with approval will be published regularly. Mrs. H. V. Henry, publicity chairman for the district, was a member of the committee who had charge of issuing these bulletins.

The district has recommended that the various associations use the official receipt book. Mrs. John Robert White has a supply of these which she will distribute to the membership chairmen.

In acceptance of Mrs. White's invitation to the various Parent-Teacher associations of Glendale to hold their committee meetings at her home there will be a meeting of the board of the Columbus avenue Parent-Teacher association at her home Monday. Mrs. Pierson Haning has called a meeting of the membership committee for Tuesday.

Mothers' Club Has Meeting; Program of Interest Presented

The regular monthly meeting of the Mothers' club of the Acacia street school took place yesterday afternoon at the school building, Mrs. William Alexander, president, in the chair.

After a short business meeting an interesting program was given. The numbers included the reading of a paper on "Child Training," by Mrs. Ted Clark; "What is the P.T.A.?" by Mrs. F. G. Hartwick; vocal solos, "A Winter Lullaby" and "The Land of Sky-Blue Waters," by Mrs. Earl McLaren, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Golden; duets, "A Little China Maid" and "Mother Love," sung by Mr. and Mrs. Harry Girard. The latter was written by Mr. Girard himself. He also sang the song which he sang at the Glendale theatre last night, "Friend of Mine." The last few minutes of the meeting was devoted to parliamentary drill by Mrs. O. W. Esselman, parliamentarian.

The next meeting of the Mothers' club will be held the third Friday in October.

R. N. Greenlaw Says Evening News Want Ads Are Great Help

R. N. Greenlaw, salesman with the Glendale Realty company at 131 South Brand boulevard, is a great believer in The Glendale Evening News advertising columns. When he first came to Glendale he obtained a room through this medium. When his folks arrived he got a house and bought some chickens by means of want ads.

When he engaged in the real estate business he started an advertising campaign that is surely bringing results. In yesterday's issue when it went on the streets at 2 o'clock he advertised a lot on Geneva street in a display advertisement. By 3 o'clock the property was sold and he has had so many replies that this morning he canvassed every property owner on North Geneva street to see if he could turn their lots to anxious buyers.

Max Lepat, Formerly Resident Here, Says City's Growth Great

Max Lepat, former owner of the Park Avenue Pharmacy, was driving through Glendale last week in his motor car and he was simply astounded at the remarkable growth of the city in which he lived for some time until a year ago.

So enthused was he about the investment possibilities offered here that he purchased two bungalows on West Dryden street through the agency of H. E. McCartney of the Edwards & Willey company, 139 North Brand boulevard.

Mr. Lepat is residing in Los Angeles at present, but it may be that he will move back here again.

COME HERE FROM INDIANA

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Ravencroft of 232 South Brand boulevard has as visitors on Friday Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Phillips of Greencastle, Indiana, who are touring southern California for the first time and are full of enthusiasm at its beauties and wonders.

W. C. T. U. MEETING IS DESCRIBED BY MRS. G. H. ROWE

Convention; Enforcing of Laws Topic of Talk

At the regular meeting of the Glendale W. C. T. U., which was held at the home of Mrs. G. H. Rowe, 216 South Orange street, yesterday afternoon, Mrs. Ruby Smart presiding, Mrs. Rowe gave a very interesting report of the W. C. T. U. convention which was held recently at San Francisco.

Part of the devotions yesterday afternoon were given over to the reading of an account of the recent passing of Lady Carlisle, who was the world president of the W. C. T. U.

Mrs. Smart spoke of the necessity of law enforcement and of the large number of girls who had disappeared in Los Angeles during the past three months.

Tells of Reception

In the report read by Mrs. Rowe she told of the splendid reception which was extended to the representatives at the national convention in San Francisco and of the manner in which the city streets, public buildings, etc., were decorated in celebration of the affair. The use of the civic auditorium, she stated, was donated to the convention delegates.

Splendid musical programs were given there, including pipe organ solos, a colored chorus and other musical features.

Mrs. Rowe stated that during the first day of the convention word was received of the death of Lady Carlisle of England, world president, which makes Anna Gordon of Evanson, Ill., acting world's W. C. T. U. president. Messages of sympathy were sent to England and the "white ribbon salute" was given the new president.

They Watch America

Anna Gordon, national president and acting world's president of the W. C. T. U., gave a splendid address at the convention, bringing out the point in her speech that "courage is as contagious as cowardice" and spoke of the west fighting for the eighteenth amendment. She also told of her recent tour of South American countries and stated that the people of those countries are watching America and are trying to get prohibition for their own countries.

Another very good speaker, Mrs. Rowe stated, was Dr. Robert O. Matthews, member of the flying squadron of the federal prohibition commission, who was present to represent the national commissioner, Hayes. He gave a splendid talk on "Americanism."

Many in Attendance

There were over 15,000 registrants at the convention, besides a very large number of visitors who were not registered. Some of the conferences given at the convention included those on the following subjects, which are all a part of the scope of work of the W. C. T. U.: Child Welfare, Department of Peace and Arbitration, Department of Citizenship, Department of Prison Reform, Medical Temperance, Social Welfare, Americanization, Parliamentary Usage, Department of Health, Loyal Temperance Legion, Young People's Branch, Sabbath Observance, Social Morality, Department of Women in Industry, and other subjects. All of these departments also had some very splendid exhibits at one of the large halls.

Mrs. Rowe stated that the people of San Francisco were so much impressed with the scope of the work of the W. C. T. U. that since the convention their W. C. T. U. membership has tripled, and they have also invited the national organization to meet in that city again next year.

'Coaccidents' Happen to Women Drivers Hitting Bicyclists

Coaccidents might be a properly coined word, according to the Glendale police who have reports on two traffic smashes which were absolutely similar except for the names and places.

Mrs. W. A. Lincoln of Los Angeles was the driver of a car which bumped Harry Lozier off his wheel at Colorado street and Verdugo Road. The boy who resides at 1365 East Garfield avenue stated he was not injured.

Mrs. Harry A. Miller of 1016 South Glendale avenue reported that her machine knocked Donald Murray of 120 North Isabel street from his bicycle at the corner of Broadway and Glendale avenue. Donald wasn't hurt.

H. W. MYERS HOST AT CELEBRATION FOR 89TH BIRTHDAY

Tells Many Details of Big Family Dinner Party Given and Flowers Raised by Host
One of Features

H. W. Myers of 1203 South Central avenue celebrated his 89th birthday anniversary last night by having a family dinner party. In spite of his years, Mr. Myers is strong and hearty and enjoys working in his garden. Many of the vegetables used at the dinner and also the flowers were raised by him in his own garden. A large cake with pink candles forming the figures "89" was one of the attractions of the evening. Mr. Myers has resided in Glendale for sixteen years, fifteen years of which were spent at 1203 South Central avenue. Mr. Myers formerly resided in Hastings, Nebraska.

Guests present to assist in the celebration were Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Myers. Mrs. Myers recently observed her 84th birthday anniversary. Miss Ida Myers and Miss Harriet Myers, Dr. A. M. Duncan, Mr. and Mrs. John T. Cate, Mrs. W. H. Hillman and three sons, Eugene, Richard and Donald of Tulare, and Miss Carol Duncan.

Cerritos School Is Not Fire Trap, Says Mrs. Annie L. Curtis

"We'll have some fire drills and let the parents come and see how quick their children can get out of this school," remarked Mrs. Annie L. Curtis, principal of the Cerritos school, when told the building in her charge had been mentioned as a fire menace.

"This school building," she declared, "is as well equipped with fire escapes as any structure in the city. There is absolutely no danger of the children being trapped in the interior."

"See!" she exclaimed, and flinging open a window in her office she motioned towards a rear balcony and stairway from the rear of one side of the first floor, while from the second story sloped a semi-covered slide which, she said, would enable a whole classroom to be emptied of its pupils in a very few seconds. Then she passed to one of the classrooms on the east side of the building and called attention to an iron stairway from the second floor.

This was placed upon the side of the structure two years ago. Since that time Mrs. Curtis has not been the slightest worried about the fire hazard of her school. She called at attention to the fact that every pupil

in it could leave on a second's notice without using the central stairway.

CRUCIBLE STEEL FEATURE OF STOCK MARKET OPENING

NEW YORK, Sept. 17.—Crucible Steel and Baldwin Locomotive were running strong early in today's stock market. Crucible was a feature at the opening, gaining a full point at 63 1/2. This was in response to a regular dividend declaration made after the close Friday. Baldwin was up 1/2 at 89 3/4 and then ran up to 90 5/8. Vanadium was fractionally higher. Mexican Petroleum made an early high of 115 1/4. While the first sale of steel common at 79 1/2 was unchanged from Friday's close, it soon picked up 1/4. The market had a firmer tone at the close, although prices were off.

U. S. Steel closed at 78 1/2, down 5/8; Baldwin 89 1/2, up 1/4; Mexican

Petroleum 113 1/4, off 2; Asphalt 50 5/8, off 1 1/4; Studebaker 76, un-

F. H. Vesper Will Speak on Alaska at Meeting of Legion

At next Friday night's meeting of the American Legion, F. H. Vesper, the local banker who recently returned from an Alaskan trip, will talk to the former service men on conditions in that territory. This was announced at last night's meeting of the Legionnaires who quickly transacted the business before them and adjourned.

Dru Nicles, chairman of the entertainment committee, reported that the winter season of dances would not begin until a suitable dance floor is obtained.

It was decided to rent the Legion hall two nights a month to the Daughters of Veterans.

Chickering Piano to Be Used In School

E. D. Hurd, salesman for the Glendale Music company, slept peacefully last night. After a week's strenuous competition with a half dozen piano salesmen, he landed the order for a Chickering piano to be installed in the music department of the Glendale Union High School.

After a careful investigation on the part of Mrs. Dora L. Gibson, head of the department, and approved by George U. Moyle, principal of the school, the decision to purchase the Chickering was arrived at. According to Mr. Hurd it is an instrument which will hold its tone and stand up under school usage.

Salmacia Brothers, proprietors of the Glendale Music company, are more than pleased to have the Chickering selected after it had been compared with practically every other high grade piano.

Henry Melone made a good appearing chef; Charles Rich appeared as Charlie Chaplin; William Rich as a full-fledged dude; Cyril Holway as Solomon Eisenstein; Hand Fanset as a farmer boy; Edwin Murphy was very cleverly disguised as a bewitching vamp and insisted on making advances to Sam Higgins the constable; Dorothy Tyner and Bessie Ross were attired as milkmaids; Mary Rich was an amusing clown and Emma King was an oriental from China. Following a march by the masqueraders the audience were directed to the side shows by Constable Sam Higgins, where balloons, ice cream cones, home made candy, etc., could be purchased. The proceeds from the entertainment will help to purchase a dental chair to equip a Methodist hospital in Sumatra. So the county fair served a double purpose, furnished an evening of diversion and entertainment for the home folks and better teeth for the people of far-away Sumatra. ### GIRLS WIN CONTEST FOR ATTENDANCE AT STORY HOUR

Boys Hosts at Party; Program for Afternoon Directed by Leone Shattuck

Over ninety children were present at the story hour and social afternoon held at the library on Harvard street last Saturday under the direction of Miss Leone Shattuck, which was the culmination of a contest between the boys and girls which has been taking place all during the summer to see which would have the largest number represented at the summer story hours.

The contest resulted in favor of the girls, and so the boys assisted Miss Shattuck in entertaining.

The program for the afternoon included harp solos by Mary McCrackan, 14 years, of 123 West Broadway.

Miss Shattuck told a very delightful story, "How Rabbits Got Long Ears."

As a special privilege the children were then allowed to play games on the lawn in front of the library building, after which they received favors.

Thirty-five Is Average

All during the summer there was an average attendance of thirty-five present at the story hours, which will be continued every Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock throughout the year, both at the main library and at the branch library on South Brand boulevard.

Miss Alice Green has charge of the story hour at the latter place and is also conducting a campaign to get more of the children in the southern section of the city interested.

ASSOCIATION OF NATIONS

WASHINGTON, Sept. 17.—President Harding and Secretary of State Hughes are without a plan to develop an "association of nations" out of the forthcoming Washington disarmament and Pacific question, according to information in authoritative quarters here today. The administration now is believed to have the choice of one of two main courses to follow in meeting the "association of nations" issue:

1.—To accept any agreement for limitation of armaments that may be worked out in the conference, as an affirmative fulfillment of the "association of nations" pledge.

2.—Or to make an effort in the conference or as a result of it, to reach an agreement with the powers on some organized method of settling justifiable questions, which, with an agreement for limitation of armaments, could take the place of the League of Nations, at least for this country.

It will be a much happier, quieter world when all firecrackers are fired by the law rather than the small boy.

Would you give up a big job if the girl you love is opposed to your work as a matter of principle?

That is the question that Wallace Reid, Paramount star, has to decide in his newest vehicle, "The Hell Diggers," which was shown again yesterday to delighted audiences at the Palace Grand theatre.

Lois Wilson is the girl, and her father looks upon the young suitor and his employers as his bitterest enemies. However, the hero becomes interested in the case of his opponents and finally allies himself with them, which means a big struggle with a strong political corporation. The fight comes off in grand style, physically as well as politically, and the star puts it over in characteristic Reid style.

"Miracles of the Jungle" are equally interesting in their way, while a comedy completes the bill closing today.

Tomorrow "The Wild Goose" with Mary McLaren and "A Kiss in Time" with Wanda Hawley will be the two feature films.

AGED WOMAN IS ACCUSED

CHICAGO, Sept. 17.—Mrs. Elizabeth Church, aged mother of Harvey Church, confessed murderer of Bernard Daugherty and Carl Ausmus, Packard Motor Car salesmen, was put through the third degree by police today. Ben Newmark, chief investigator of the state's attorney's office, is working on the theory that the mother had knowledge of the slayings.

Mrs. Church denied she knew anything about the double murder. Police said today that the woman, who had complained of having heart trouble, was examined by doctors and found sound. Church was forced to tell, in the presence of his mother, the gruesome tale of how he beat the two salesmen to death to obtain a $5,400 touring car. She was unemotional during the recital.

Dew is deposited only on a fine, clear night.

MODEL ATTRACTS PLACE CAR UPON
LARGE CROWD PRE-WAR BASIS

Advertisement In The Evening News Has Pulling Power, Says Max Green

Announcement of the arrival in Glendale of the Oakland Six Sport at $1495 was made exclusively on Thursday afternoon in The Glendale Evening News by Green & McClellan, local dealers.

More than fifty people called at the showrooms that evening to inspect the new car, according to Max L. Green, who declared that it was the most remarkable demonstration of display advertising value he had ever seen.

"I knew that The Glendale Evening News had a pulling power worthy of our advertising," he said, "but I had no idea of entertaining such a host of motor enthusiasts who must read your paper."

Green & McClellan are devoting their energies this next week on the San Fernando valley fair crowds, having arranged to display their sport model in the automobile show there.

Auto Finds Ready Market In This City; Improvements Proving of Value

Pointing out that the latest drop in the Four Ninety Chevrolets brings the selling price at Flint, Michigan, to within $35 of what the cars sold when they were first marketed at $490, O. W. Tarr, local Chevrolet agent of 510 East Broadway, asserts that the car actually costs the buyer less today than it did before the war. To explain this Mr. Tarr stated that the Flint, Michigan, price is now $325 while the price there at the time the model was first produced was $490, but since this model was introduced at that price the manufacturers have equipped it with a water pump, oil pressure gauge, demountable rims, extra rim and tire carrier, Timken bearings in the front wheels, hand emergency brake lever and leveled spiral cut gears in the differential.

Pre-War Prices Here
The addition of these improvements alone would cost several times $35 even at pre-war prices the local Chevrolet dealer points out. The prospective buyer who is holding off waiting for "pre-war" prices has been rewarded, that time has arrived he states.

Chevrolets have found more than merely a ready market in Glendale. From third place to that of second with chances of running first in the local field is evidence of the manner which they have been received here since the recent drop, says Mr. Tarr. The demand for Chevrolets has not been confined to Glendale from reports throughout the state. Cars assembled in readiness for Oriental shipments have been held up and sent to southern California visitors from the Chevrolet factory have informed the local dealer.

Lower Price Boosts
Sale of Light Six
Studebaker, Report

The Packer Auto company of Colorado and Brand boulevards, San Fernando valley representatives of the Studebaker motorcars, reports that there has been a decided speeding up in orders for the Light Six. A price reduction was announced last week and its popularity with purchasers is such that the Packer Auto company today has only one of the models left which will be exhibited at the San Fernando Valley Fair and Market at San Fernando this coming week.

Mr. Packer states that a most pretentious automobile and tractor show will be held in conjunction with the fair. Several other San Fernando valley representatives of motorcars with headquarters in Glendale will spend most of the week under the big top devoted to machines.

GRIND VALVES, IS WARNING

It is not good practice to see how long the valves can hold compression without grinding. With every day's use they are growing worse, which means that they are burning and warping without being noticed. When the job of grinding is finally attempted the valves will be found in such a bad shape that it will take a great deal of work to bring them back to condition. They should never run more than 2000 miles without grinding, and every 1500 miles would be better.

HARRY E. WHITE, INC. ANNOUNCES NEW Cletrac, $845

Plows Six to Eight Acres In Day and Does All Other
Farm Work, He States

Harry E. White, Inc., distributors for Los Angeles and Kern counties, announces the new Cletrac at $845. The Cletrac is a chrome steel tractor which plows six to eight acres a day and does all the other farm work including the cultivating of corn, cotton and other row crops. The new tractor and tractor cultivator is made by the Cleveland Tractor company, makers of Cletrac Tank-Type tractors.

Cletrac Model "F," which is the designation given to the new tractor, and the Cletrac cultivator will have an appeal to both the dealer and the farmer which cannot fail to stimulate the whole power farming business. In discussing the new tractor Mr. White said:

"At first glance it is apparent that Cletrac Model "F" has been simplified to a degree never before found in any tractor. For example, there is no main frame, the motor, transmission and differential assemblies being so designed that they bolt together into one solid unit from front to rear, eliminating vibration and insuring rigidity and alignment of the power path at all times. Compactness, too, results from this simplified design and contributes its share to the reduction of size, weight and price without the sacrifice of power and serviceability which farm use demands.

No Oil or Grease Cups
"One looks in vain for oil cups and grease cups. They have all been eliminated leaving the filler pipe to the combined motor and gear case as the only point requiring attention from the operator. The oil in this case supplies lubrication to every part of the tractor which requires it. To those already experienced in the sale and use of farm tractors this improved design will come as a distinct relief from the great problem of proper lubrication.

"Examining the details more closely it is found that the motor, which has four cylinders of 3 1/4-inch bore and 4 1/2-inch stroke, is provided with four crank shaft bearings in place of the usual three. This so completely eliminates motor vibration that wear on the motor, and in fact on the whole tractor, is reduced to the minimum. The gear case cover on the front, which also acts as a supporting member for the power and driving units, encloses the gears for the water pump, fan, governor and magneto giving a simple, self-contained motor that requires little attention from the operator. Positive gear drive to fan and water pump is an important feature.

Can Be Reached Quickly
"Turning to the transmission, gear shift, steering and differential assemblies, these are found so conveniently located in the large, rear housing that any part can be reached quickly and easily without disturbing other parts, a feature of inestimable worth when making adjustments during the rush seasons of farm work. By the removal of a few cap screws the entire gear mechanism is exposed and made accessible.

"There is one speed forward and one reverse, the shifting being accomplished by meshing a heavy straight tooth pinion inside of one or the other of two bevel gears which are so set that they are turned in opposite direction from the bevel drive pinion on the clutch shaft. The usual train of transmission gears has been entirely eliminated.

"As in the Model "W" Cletrac, steering is accomplished by varying the ratio of speed between the tracks but in place of gears and screws to tighten the steering bands a positive cam and roller action is used, greatly simplifying the entire mechanism. A new type of brake control utilizes both steering bands and makes unnecessary the addition of a third band and drum for braking. Adjustments for wear are made with conveniently located screws reached through hand holes without removing the rear housing cover.

Adaptable to All Farm Work
"While Cletrac Model "F" weighs only 1820 pounds and measures but 80 inches long, 50 inches high and 22 inches wide, it is capable of plowing six to eight acres a day with a standard 2-bottom 12-inch plow. It also discs, harrows, cultipacks or seeds twenty to twenty-five acres a day, and handles any belt job up to a 16 horsepower load. Its normal plowing speed is three miles per hour, but this can be varied for any operation from one to three miles and steady power at any speed is insured by the positive action of the governor upon the kerosene burning motor.

"Complete adaptability of the Cletrac Model "F" to every job on the farm is obtained by the addition of the new Cletrac Two-Row Cultivator, a tool which in its improved design and simple operation ranks with the new Cletrac itself as a boon to farmers."

What counts is not "How much have you?" but "What have you done?"

"IT SPEAKS FOR ITSELF"

AN ECONOMICAL CAR

—Not only is the first cost of the Gardner unusually low, considering its size, power, comfort, and stamina, but in cost of operation it will afford the motor owner a pleasant surprise.

—The Gardner's economy of Gas and Lubricating oil was proven in the Yosemite Economy Run, in which it won first place. Hundreds of owners find it just as economical on tires and repairs.

—Before buying a motor car you owe it to yourself to at least inspect the Gardner—ride in it or drive it—call us up for demonstration.

FREE ESSEX FILM SHOW TO CLOSE WITH DANCE

'On Trail of Arrow' Draws 500
Attendance; Sturdy Car
Merits Praise

"On the Trail of the Arrow," an Essex production in two reels, was presented for the second time last night at the Glendale Hudson sales rooms, 230 North Brand boulevard, with more than 500 people in attendance.

This film depicts the trip of two girls into the Devil's punch bowl in an Essex car, a wonderful demonstration of the sturdy performance afforded owners of that machine.

Tonight will be the last showing of the motor thriller and all who attend will be invited to remain for a dance and get acquainted with the Hudson and Essex salesmen here. Music, of course, will be provided and the garage floor well waxed. Prizes will be awarded to make matters more interesting.

TRY THIS ONE WITH SPARK

Some drivers do not realize the necessity for keeping the spark well advanced at all times. The rule is to advance the spark as far as it will stand without knocking. This uses the full length of the power stroke and so requires less gasoline. Try this experiment: While running at a fair speed on a level road, retard the spark. The car will slow down. Now open the throttle enough to get back to the same speed. This extra throttle opening represents just so much more gasoline used to overcome the handicap of a retarded spark.

The largest nugget of gold ever found is said to have been the "Welcome" nugget, discovered in 1858 at Bakery Hill, Balarat, Australia. It weighed 2217 ounces, and was sold for about $53,000.

The luster and durability of the new Buick finish is causing much favorable comment. It is a finish that stands up without coddling, and its gloss is preserved without excessive polishing.

Watch the new Buicks go by. They represent the last word in motor car designing.

Carl Anderson to Have Store Opening Next Monday Morning

The "smile that won't come off" beams all over Carl Anderson's face this afternoon. With a great deal of pleasure he is looking forward to a grand opening Monday morning of his greatly enlarged store at 516 East Broadway under the name of the Carl Anderson Dry Goods Store.

A wheel chair is no handicap to Mr. Anderson. He finds he can get around much faster than many who walk. All week he has been wheeling around from one corner of the salesroom to the other supervising the alterations and exhibiting his usual accommodating manner towards customers.

Confidence in the future of Glendale and particularly in the advantages of his site across the street from the Glendale Sanitarium and Hospital is expressed by Mr. Anderson. He is anticipating a big business this winter.

Buick Display to Be Seen In Pomona

Tanner & Hall, Ltd., Glendale Buick agents, proved themselves such capable exhibitors of their popular motor car that the Boden Buick agency in Pomona is using their accessories at the Pomona Merchants Exposition, according to A. Marvin Greathouse of the Pacific Coast Exposition company, who was a visitor in Glendale last night.

SEE IF FAN BELT IS TIGHT
Try the fan occasionally to see if the belt is tight enough. If the blades can be spun around the belt is loose and the engine will overheat. If it is so tight that the blades can hardly be moved there is danger of snapping off the blades when the engine starts. If the belt is tight enough so that the fan will slip with a slight effort it is about right.

STUDY LUBRICATION CHART
Study your lubrication chart thoroughly and locate every part shown. Then see that each part gets the attention required by the manufacturer. If any part runs dry it cuts down the efficiency of the car, the part wears and becomes noisy, and may even seize and break.

Wise husbands are preparing their pocketbooks for the fall openings.

Bartlett & French Get Hup Agency for All Valley District

Bartlett & French, Brand boulevard and Harvard street, have secured the Hupmobile agency for the San Fernando valley and their first two demonstration cars are now on display.

"This agency," remarked Lanier Bartlett, "is considered one of the most valuable in the automobile world. It is a 'bear cat' of a car. The touring car has cord tires, motor meter, patent wind shield wiper, a device which is found usually only on the more expensive cars, the Alemite greasing system and many other features. It is 'some car.'

James H. French, his partner, drove back to Glendale with the second of the two Hups yesterday afternoon. He, also, is well pleased with the machine.

In connection with the new agency a Hup service station is being established in the garage. The firm believes this will be a boon to Hup owners in the vicinity.

TRY BRAKES; DO IT OFTEN!

Try out the brakes every time you take the car out. When there is room ahead, speed up with the accelerator and apply the foot brakes to see if the car comes evenly to a stop. Do this several times and then try the emergency brake. Once a week jack up the rear wheels, set the emergency brake up fairly strong and try both wheels by hand. If one moves more freely than the other it must be set up more. Have someone hold the foot break for you or block it by means of a jack.

IS EVERY BOLT AT WORK?

Go over all the connections of the steering mechanism once a week to see that every bolt is doing its work and that none of them are coming loose. More damage may follow failure of the steering gear than any other part of the car. See that nuts are tight, that cotter pins are in place and that lock washers are holding. If in doubt, put a wrench on each nut that is not held by a split pin. You will be well repaid by the extra confidence it will give you while driving.

REGISTRATION FOR NIGHT SCHOOL IS NOW OVER 150

Great Interest Being Shown In Courses; Program to Be Announced Shortly

Over 150 have enrolled for night school work at the local high school Thursday and Friday nights of this week. In view of the fact that no campaign of advertising has been made, the enrollment is considerably larger than was expected. The greatest demand is for commercial subjects, including bookkeeping, typewriting, shorthand, penmanship, arithmetic and business English. In the mechanical arts, autoshop, machine shop, mechanical drawing and carpentry have proved the most popular. There have also been a large number of requests for millinery, sewing and Spanish.

The next week will be given over to making out courses, securing teachers and making out a program of the work to be given. Regular work in the night school will begin the week of September 26. Detailed information concerning the work offered will be mailed to all who have registered and will be announced in The Evening News the coming week.

All who desire work in the night school and who have not as yet registered will please communicate with A. L. Ferguson as soon as possible so that their requests may be considered in making up the course to be offered.

A. H. Montgomery Buys Two Lots In Verdugo Woodlands

A. H. Montgomery of 415 South Central avenue has purchased two large lots in Verdugo Woodlands—Glendale's foothill residential section—and on this beautifully located site he expects to build a home this fall.

The F. P. Newport company also reports the sale of home site to W. H. C. Bravo, a former official of the Republic of Mexico, who has forsaken the beauties of Mexico City for a home in the canyon where the Spanish dons settled more than 150 years ago.

Glendale people attending the opera this evening in Verdugo Woodlands will do well to notice the many improvements made in this beautiful section recently.

Pacific Avenue P.-T. A. Holds First Gathering

The first regular meeting of the Pacific Avenue Parent-Teacher association of this school year was held Thursday afternoon at the school building, with a splendid crowd in attendance.

The meeting was opened with words of greeting from the president, Mrs. Mae Rosenberg, to the members, and a welcome to the visitors from other schools. After that a business meeting was held.

One important matter taken up was that the association purchase a mimeograph for the use of the entire school, a motion to that effect being carried. It is expected that the machine will be installed before the next meeting of the association.

Sixth Grade Gets Reward

The sixth grade of the school, which is in charge of Mrs. Stone, won the "mother count" reward for the month of September, which has proven to be a canary and cage.

Announcement was made of the reception to be given to the Glendale teachers October 10, and also of the district conference to be held October 6 in Los Angeles.

Mrs. P. O. Lucas, as program chairman, introduced Mrs. John Robert White, who extended greetings and told of the enthusiasm at the district board meeting which she had attended and of the work outlined for the coming year.

Gives Indian Love Songs

Two Indian love songs, "From the Land of the Sky-Blue Waters" (Cadmian), and "By the Waters of Minnetonka" (Lieurene), were then delightfully rendered by Miss Brennan, teacher of music for the Glendale schools. She was accompanied by Miss Sharp.

Richardson D. White, superintendent of city schools, spoke of the overcrowded conditions in the schools and of the importance of carrying the $260,000 school bond election in order to relieve this condition.

After Mrs. Rosenberg announced that "Fathers' Night" will be held during October, the meeting adjourned to the school court, where tea and cakes were served.

NEXT IN LINE TO FORTUNE

YAKIMA, Wash., Sept. 17.—Francis Watt Newson, driver for a laundry company here, has become next in line to inherit a fortune of 2,000,000 pounds, according to information received today. He is 53 years old. A brother is now in possession, but is an invalid and unmarried. The fortune was founded by Richard Watt, slave trader.

—live amid the rustic beauty of Picturesque Verdugo Woodlands

Glendale's Beautiful Residential Park

The above scene is from an actual photograph taken last week at Verdugo Woodlands—the Wilshire section of Glendale. In no other spot suburban to Los Angeles will you find so much of rustic charm, woodland verdure, sunshine and shadow, murmuring waters, spreading live-oaks and glorious vistas of the towering Sierras.

Verdugo Woodlands is redolent with the romance of the early days of the Spanish regime. It is the erstwhile estate of the distinguished Verdugo family—and the original adobe home is being preserved for sentimental reasons.

Why build your home—or buy one—in the flat, uninteresting sections of the city? Why not join the nature-loving colony who are happily established in this delightful setting among the cool, green Verdugo hills? Live where the very environment is a constant inspiration—where your health will be better—where your children are welcomed—where you'll find peace, quiet, contentment and rest.

We offer artistic, ready-to-move-into homes at prices below what is asked in the flat, low-lying, no-view sections.

Big villa sites at $1000 and upwards. Five minutes' ride from the high and grammar schools, churches, stores, theatres, etc.

TWO HEADLINE ACTS BEING PRESENTED AT GLENDALE

Three Maids of Harmony and Clown With Dogs Feature Vaudeville Program

Two star acts headline the Meiklejohn and Dunn vaudeville coming to the Glendale theatre this afternoon and evening. For those who love music there is the Hannelle Trio, three beautiful maids from melody land, who will provide harmony for the eyes and ears of Glendale people such as is seldom seen and heard. They sing and play delightfully and look better.

Then there is Bernard Boldin, the clown, with his pure white Spitz dogs, which have been named after the motion picture stars. It is the greatest collection of intelligent canines touring the vaudeville circuits, according to advance information.

Three other acts of merit and up to the usual high class have been arranged for by Meiklejohn and Dunn. So be early at the 7 o'clock show or wait until 9, says Manager W. A. Howe.

A stirring drama and a battle for love in a blizzard briefly tells of the feature film, "Bare Knuckles," with William Russell starring, which completes the bill.

C. F. Waechter to Conduct Free Trips Into Oil Territory

E. P. Hayward, with Edwards & Wildey company, is very happy to welcome to Glendale an old army associate, C. F. Waechter from Seattle.

After returning from overseas, both were assigned to Camp Lewis, Washington, where they became very intimate friends. Mr. Waechter will live with Mr. Hayward at his mother's, 307 North Kenwood, until he moves to his new residence at 525 West Pioneer, where Mr. Waechter will become a "star boarder."

Mr. Waechter is going to make Glendale his headquarters for the sale of oil lots, with the Garden Grove Oil Land company, who have 100 acres in the center of activity and next to the Standard Oil company's half million dollar leases. Garden Grove is on a direct line between the Signal Hill, Richfield and Huntington Beach-Montebello fields, and is said by geologists to be the coming oil center. The Standard Oil company is down 3000 feet with very good oil showings and making preparations for two more wells. Mr. Waechter will run a free trip daily commencing Sunday.

Prince Emmanuel to Speak Sunday Night Relative to Chaldea

Prince Raphael Emmanuel of Chaldea will speak at the Congregational church next Sunday night on "Chaldea: Its History and Customs."

Prince Emmanuel is a direct descendant of King Nebuchadnezzar and of Nimrod. He delivered an address this summer before the Tuesday Afternoon club and all who heard it pronounced it both entertaining and instructive. He will appear in his native costume next Sunday night. He is declared to be a ready speaker and an interesting personality.

'Original Dress Shop' to Be Opened In City

Maude E. Chamberlin, who has been a resident of Glendale for over a year and owns property on North Highland avenue near Kenneth Road, and Zelle Davenport, who has recently come here from New York, will open a dressmaking shop at 115 East Broadway at the Glendale Dry Goods store. This new venture will be called "The Original Dress Shop," the aim being to turn out original and attractive suits and dresses, rather than extreme styles.

Autos Steam Cleaned; It's Latest Method

The latest innovation in cleaning cars has been brought to Glendale and installed at 120 West Colorado boulevard.

It is a steam cleaning apparatus that gets the dirt from remote parts of the chassis as the cleaning solution is driven in by high pressure steam. Motorists who are interested in having their car thoroughly cleaned by this system should investigate what the plant at 120 West Colorado offers.
